

Building the Next Generation of Leaders
Looking for the future leaders in the area of disabilities in New Mexico
2013

Partners in Policymaking®
A Leadership Training Program

A UNIQUE TRAINING PROGRAM FOR:
Self Advocates with Disabilities
Family Members
Community Members

The Partners in Policymaking®
Program is about

- « Becoming an Advocate or Leader «
- « The Value of Inclusion «
- « Empowerment and Self-Determination «
- « Creating positive change «

Positive Partnerships

Positive Change

Partners in Policymaking®
A national leadership training program that offers an educational opportunity to learn the most current information about disability issues. The program helps to develop the skills necessary for effective advocacy to influence public policy at all levels of government.

Attend seven powerful two-day training sessions in Albuquerque
Participants will be selected through an application process
Cost of training including lodging for one evening and meals is waived for those selected

DATES OF TRAINING

March 8-9, April 12-13, May 10-11, June 14-15, July 12-13, August 16-17, September 13-14

Applications are now available

For more information contact

Lauriann King (505) 272-5304 or laking@salud.unm.edu